Mr Malcolm Byrne T.D.

Dáil Éireann

Leinster House

Kildare Street

Dublin 2

8th April 2026

Dear Malcolm,

I refer to the following Parliamentary Questions answered on the 24th March.

PQ 21900/26 - “To ask the Minister for Enterprise; Tourism and Employment the number of heads of government, heads of state, ministers, governors, mayors or other senior elected officials he and Ministers of State in his Department met for the St. Patrick's Day engagements overseas this year.”

PQ 21918/26 - “To ask the Minister for Enterprise; Tourism and Employment the number of Irish diaspora groups, including but not limited to sporting and cultural organisations, as well as emigrant organisations he and Ministers of State in his Department met for the St. Patrick's Day engagements overseas this year.”

PQ 21936/ 26 - “To ask the Minister for Enterprise; Tourism and Employment the number of businesses and business representative organisations he and State Ministers of State in his Department met for the St. Patrick's Day engagements overseas this year.”

The responses indicated that additional time would be needed to obtain the requested information. That information is now available and outlined below.

For this year's St. Patrick's Day engagements, I travelled to New York and during this time I met with one Governor, two Mayors and a State Senator. This included attendance at the Consulate Community Reception with a short bilateral meeting with the Governor of New York prior to the reception; a meeting with the Mayor of Morristown and members of the New Jersey-Ireland Trade Commission; a visit to the 9/11 museum and memorial accompanied by the State Senator and attendance at a breakfast reception hosted by the Mayor of New York. I also met with eleven Irish diaspora groups and twenty-two businesses or business representative organisations.

Niamh Smyth TD, Minister of State for Trade Promotion, Artificial Intelligence and Digital Transformation, travelled to Florida and during that time met with three Mayors including the Mayor of Jacksonville, the Mayor of Miami Dade County and Mayor of Tampa. She also met with thirteen Irish diaspora groups and seven businesses or business representative organisations, Minister of State for Small Businesses and Retail, Mr Alan Dillon TD, travelled to Central America and met with one head of state - the President of Guatemala, two Ministers – the Minister for Tourism and the Minister for Agriculture, one Guatemalan Vice Minister – the Vice Minister for Agricultural Health and Regulations and one Mexican Vice Minister – the Vice Minister for Sustainable Development and Circular Economy. Minister Dillon also met with four Irish diaspora groups and eight businesses or business representative organisations.

I trust this information is of assistance.

Yours sincerely,
